

Day 5 Friday 27th March 2020

Good morning, we have finally reached the end of what has been a strange week for all of us. Big thanks to everyone who has shared what they have been doing from completed work from their packs to art work and other activities they have chosen. It is important for you all to find a way that works best for you and your family. This could be sticking to a timetable or deciding each morning what you would like to achieve that day. The most important thing at the moment is working together with whoever is in your house and being kind to each other.
