Good morning Year 5 ,

Some great poetry yesterday about your favourite places, well done!

Today your English task is to use read the attached newspaper article and argue for and against school uniform. All the instructions are included. In mymaths today you are looking at time - remember to click on the lesson on the right before you complete the task- this will give you a chance to practice first and your answers will be more accurate. Try to improve on yesterday's score. Remember the learning tasks are just suggestions, do how much is right for you and take regular breaks and be kind to yourself- don't worry if you don't get it right first time - remember that's how we learn.

Today there's a DT lesson you could try
