

Thursday 7th May 2020 , Day 14 Summer Term

Good Morning Year 5,

The sun is shining again so try to get outside if you can. I think the fresh air and sunshine brings some happiness to all of us. Today, most of you should receive another home learning pack. Don't panic!! Some of you have done more learning online so you are not as far through the packs , others have preferred to use the paper versions so they will be needing a new one. Remember you all need to work at your own pace, take lots of breaks, don't stress. For some of you writing a short list of tasks to tick off each day works well so you know what you are achieving in the day ahead.

If you are having a tricky day, put the work to the side go outside and play a game, read a story, play a board game, do some lego, tidy your room (just slipped that one in!), draw a self portrait or a picture of someone in your house or a pet, make something (there are some VE day ideas in your new pack).

Hopefully your Jumanji inspired stories are almost finished now. We can't wait to read them . If you have already written yours look at yesterday's support sheet for some help on editing and improving and then you can publish it by writing it out neatly and adding illustrations.

Keep going with the mymaths and don't forget to complete the practice lesson first.

****Important Mymaths

Reminder**** Each Mymaths homework task we set has a lesson option to complete first. The task is on the left on the screen and the lesson practice on the right . It is good to complete the lesson practice first so you will know how to do your independent task.

Remember there are also maths lessons with support videos at <https://whiterosemaths.com/homelearning/>

After Maths and English today, you could try an ICT lesson about coding at <https://www.bbc.co.uk/bitesize/articles/z6rhnr4>
