

Wednesday 1st July 2020

Good morning Year 1,

Another fabulous day! Another day and another month. Hello July. Now that the sun has been out, our sunflower has really grown. Take a look.

Today's work:

- Retell the story of the Three Little Pigs in a new way.

- ★ Maybe by reading it aloud while holding your nose

- ★ Or maybe whispering

- ★ Or another way.

- Thinking about the Wolf's feelings. The wolf gets very angry at the end of the story. What strategies could he have used to control his anger?

Remember to continue with TTRockstars, SpellingShed and MyMaths.

Have a fabulous day! Keep safe
